A Straightforward Message of Good and Wholesome News

You Were Very Welcome

The two hot Summer days just passed have been most agreeable days in the Store.

Very many people came with smiling faces, saying:

"We always feel cooler when we are in the Store, and at the same time interested in so many things that are pretty and new every day to be seen here. It is a great pleasure to feel so much at home in the Store, and not to be driven and guided or tempted all the time toward piles of goods that we have seen before and that we are told day after day are under price, as elsewhere. It is so much better here to see always some new goods that are really low in price."

The people who come to buy, the people who come to see and the people who come only for the cool comfort they are perfectly welcome at all times—without spending money here.

CRETONS

We are showing all the newest things in cretons, suitable for walking and outing skirts, jackets and hats. A large variety of light grounds with dainty floral effects. As well as the darker auburn colors, which make up beautifully. Prices from 25c to 60c yd. One sale basement floor.

WARDROBE

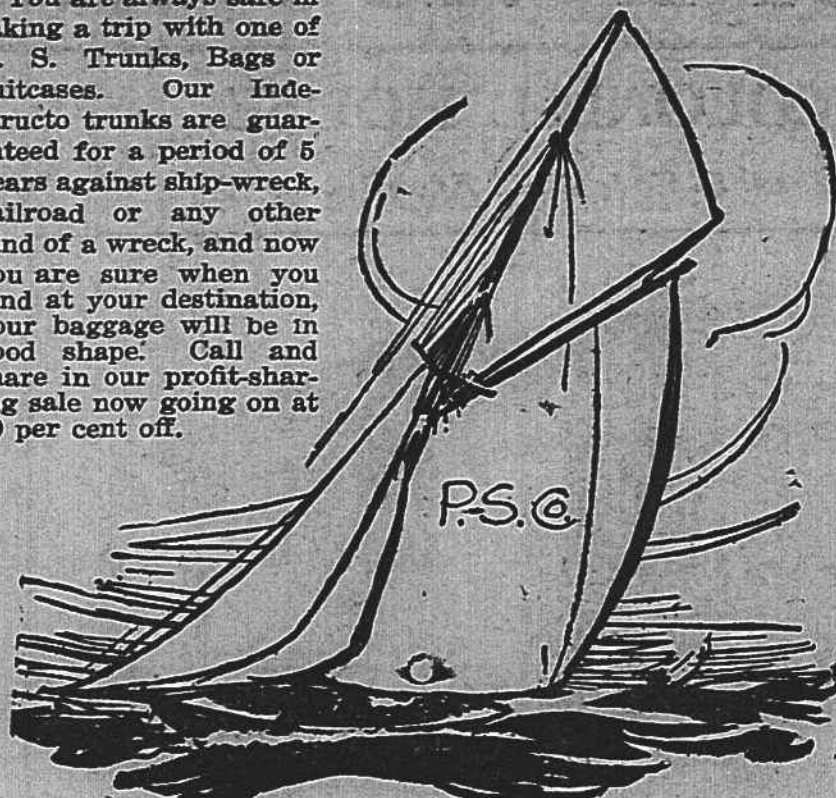

We are sole agents for the new folding wardrobe, made of Cretons and Cheviot, chemically treated, which makes it dust and moth proof. 10 garments can be hung in one, and this does away with muzzling the garments. Can be folded up and carried in a suit case. Price $3 and $4.00.

Theater Party.

In honor of little Miss Ann Carey Moss, daughter of Congressman and Mrs. Hunter H. Moss, little Mary Ernst Cooper and Master Charles William Cooper entertained a merry little group of children at the afternoon performance of "Cinderella" Friday at the Robinson Grand, Chaproned by Mrs. Howard Cooper, Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, Mrs. Hunter H. Moss and Mrs. Lynn S. Hornor. Mary Pickford, the wonderful little screen favorite, never was more charming than in this beautiful and unique film version of the greatest fairy tale ever written. The children were most enthusiastic in their appreciation of the production filled with the beauties of Fairyland, splendor and the joy of every child's heart.

After the performance Mrs. Charles B. Alexander entertained the small guests at the Apollo where ices, cake and confections were served to the charming little group at an attractive table, among whom were Miss Ann Carey Moss, Emily

Read, Peggy Alexander, Mary Cooper, Eleanor Flowers, Holmes Moss Alexander, Ambler Moss, Charles R. Alexander, Jr., Hunter Moss, Jr., and Charles William Cooper.

For Guests.

From 4 to 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, Misses Frances and Margaret Robinson entertained a number of their girl friends at a reception to meet their out-of-town guests, Miss Beatrice Poulk, of Wilmington, Del., and Miss Grace Phillips, of Reading, Pa.

Roses and larkspur with vines of asparagus were pleasingly used in the floral decorations of the rooms. Ices and confections were served in the dining room from an attractive table where a basket of pink roses formed the table's centerpiece. Mrs. Charles W. Lynch presided and coffee was poured by Mrs. S. Austin Smith. Fruit punch was refreshingly served by Miss Edith Heavner.

Among the aids were Miss Mabel Smith, Miss Grace Haymaker, Miss Virginia Wood, Miss Grace Flowers and Miss Bertha Bland.

Porch Party.

A very attractive porch party was given Friday by Mrs. James W. Williams and Mrs. Dudley D. Britt in their summer home at Oak Mount. Auction bridge was played at four tables and at 1 o'clock a beautifully appointed luncheon was served. Covers were laid for sixteen guests.

Attend Dance.

Quite a number of girls and boys of the younger set and their out-of-town visitors attended the dance at the country club Friday night.

Church Benefit.

A happy crowd is expected at the John E. Stealey place this evening. A public festival will be given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church at Stealey Heights.

Somerville Reunion.

The annual reunion of the Somerville family will be held Saturday, August 14, at the home of W. Somerville at Good Hope. An invitation is extended to all members of the Somerville family and their friends.

Special Dinner.

The caterer at the country club will serve a special dinner to the members of the club Sunday evening. A program of music will be rendered during the evening by Bowyer's saxophone orchestra.

Many at the Springs.

WEBSTER SPRINGS, Aug. 7.—More than a hundred guests are registered at the Webster Springs hotel and the management is featuring a banquet entertainment on the regular dance nights. A large number of talented guests are spending their vacations at the popular resort and taking part in these social affairs.

Among the Clarksbury guests registered are G. P. Leatherbury, O. Farrell, Effie P. Sayer, Viola Haines, Freda Hoidt, Frank Goff, W. C. Boyles, Robert Coyner, P. E. Hill, Miss Parsons, Mrs. D. K. Reed and Mrs. W. H. Hill.

To Have Kitchen Shower.
